

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.”

John 10:27-28

I Am Doing A Miracle Heart Transplant In You, Says The Lord

My beloved precious child, I have seen everything that you have been through during your life. I have seen how people have treated you. I have seen every painful and every traumatic experience that you've had. I know the times when you have felt helpless. I know the times when you have felt hopeless. I know when you have been crushed in spirit. I have seen every tear that you've ever shed. It is I the Lord your God that have carried you in my arms through every one of the dark valleys you have been through.

It is I the Lord your God that gave you the strength to come through those experiences in your life that many other people walking the earth would not have survived.

My beloved child, I have called you by name from your mother's womb. You are chosen and not forsaken. I am for you and not against you. I have plans for your life, plans for good and not for disaster to give you a future and a hope.

What I the Lord are doing inside of you, as you are receiving my words now, I am doing a miracle heart transplant. The heart that you were born with has become a stony heart due to everything that you have experienced during your life. The pain, the suffering, the heartache, how other people have treated you.

My beloved I want you to now imagine the heart inside of you. This heart of stone, and all around your heart of stone are chains, and these are chains to your past. These are chains to your past life experiences, for it is your past life experiences that have led to your heart becoming hardened and becoming stubborn and stony, but as you imagine now your stony heart wrapped in impenetrable chains without a way to unlock, also imagine that around your hardened heart wrapped in chains are iron bars all around, like prison bars. What appear to be impenetrable iron bars.

This is how you have been living and experiencing life with your hardened heart in chains to your past, behind an impenetrable prison and iron bars.

What I the Lord are doing now on the inside of you, as you receive my words, as I am pouring my Spirit into you, I am destroying every one of those iron bars. They are destroyed now.

I am destroying every single chain now, for every chain breaks in my name, and now with just your hardened heart of stone visible, I the Lord your God, I am now taking out of you your heart of stone and giving you a new heart, a responsive heart, a tender heart of flesh, and with your new heart of flesh, for the first time in your life, not only will you begin to truly love me with all your heart, with all your mind, with all your soul with all your strength, but you will also truly be able to love your neighbour as yourself, including those people that have hurt you the most in your life.

My beloved child, as you lay at the foot of my cross your unforgiveness, as I am pouring my Spirit into you, I am going to give you the strength now to not only confess with your tongue, with all your heart, that you forgive those who have hurt you during your life, by my Spirit, you will also be able to pray and ask me to set them free from their life that is dominated by sin, by darkness, by acts of evil.

Thank you my beloved child for receiving my message. Thank you my beloved child for receiving by faith, your new heart of flesh, from your old heart of stone, for when I send my Word out into your life and into the lives of my people across the earth, it does not return to me void, it accomplishes all that I desire and it prospers everywhere that I send it.

My beloved child, fix your eyes on me. I am the author and the finisher of your faith. I am your strength. I am your hope. You get your peace from me, and the peace that I give you is a gift the world cannot give you.

Go forth, my beloved, fearfully and wonderfully made child. I have called you by name from your mother's womb to be my glory carrier, to be my hands and feet, says I the Sovereign Lord.
